EVALUATION	COUNTRY.	Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015900150006-8	25X
DATE OF CONTENT prior to 22 Ecomptor 1952 DATE OF CONTENT prior to 22 Ecomptor 1952 DATE OF CONTENT prior to 22 Ecomptor 1952 PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & NYE) REMARKS 25X1 1. In early Ecomptor 1952 the air unit statatomed at registal private apply officer of the surface	TOPIC	Standal-Borstel Airfield	kyddi farfy fol ^g r an mae'n an allagan yw ar
25X1 PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 NYE) 25X1 1. In early Educater 1952. The air unit stationed at sternal warstol mirried was lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Senton lieutenant Valuation at the installation. Aircraft revertenants were completed in front of the field. Antillary soldiers were also observed at the installation of the field. In the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the hangars of the field left, the installation allowed in the open were charded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor voltables arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid suplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Solven 16 and 22 November, three of the blanes were given a new coat of black paints. h. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in froat of the field dump, Dehind each revetment were under construction in the southern portion of the field, an estimated 30 such revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field, An estimated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The touts previously observed near the AAA, emplacements had disappeared. The AAAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. While information on Genior Henterant Yakushov was previously transmitted by the officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of to ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	EVALUATIO	N25X1PLACE_OBTAINED	25X1
25X1 25X1 L. In early November 1952. The air unit stationed at oternal Derstal dirind was Lieutenant Colonel Midorysky Benfor Lieutenant Valuabov was the supply officer of this unit. Proc 50 to 60 eingle-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft reverbents were being built around the landing field. Artillary soldiers were also observed at the Surakov installation of the field. 2. Juring the period from 10 to 16 November, about 50 of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for Deeberits. Subsequently, most of the sireraft previously parked in the open were quarted by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notion volicies arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were dead to the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were dead to the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were dead to the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were dead to the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were dead to the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were dead to the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Aid supplements were were contraction in the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were river a new coat of black an estimated 30 such revolveness were under construction in the southern pertion of the field. An estimated 30 such revolveness were under construction in the southern pertion of the field. An estimated 30 such revolveness were under construction in the southern pertion of the field. The tents previously observed meer the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The falls soldiers lived in underground bunkers. We reported to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	DATE OF C	· 中央 公司 · 中央 公司 · 中央 公司 · 中央 · 中	:
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 1. In early Movember 1952. The observed at Field was Lieutenant Colonel Siderynk; Senior Lieutenant Yakushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetoms were being built around the landing field. Artillory soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. A coldient was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation, Aircraft revetoms were being built around the landing field. Artillory soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. Artillory soldiers were also observed of the sirreraft previously parked in the open were maded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor weld in the open were maded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor weld in the open were maded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor weld in the open were maded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor weld in the open were maded to watch the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous AAA emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were given a new cost of black paint. 1. Architect 30 such revetoms were under construction at the installation, The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The tents previously transmitted by The tents previously transmitted by The tents proud attack regiment stationed at the field.	DATE OBTA	JNED. 25X1 DATE PREPARED 15 December 1952
25X1 1. In early Movember 1952, the air unit stationed at otherwise large of the ear unit stationed at otherwise large of the large of the ear unit stationed at otherwise large of the unit. From 50 to 60 stagle-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetworks were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field, and in the post of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for boeberies. Subsequently, seet of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were planeded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Adv explanements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. "Aight aircraft revetments were under construction in the scuthern portion of the field, an outroted 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the Adv. soldiers had disappeared. The Adv. soldiers lived in underground bunkers.4 4. December Licutement Colonel Endorynk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Licutemant Valuabov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	REFERENC	25X1
25X1 1. In early Movember 1952, the air unit stationed at otherwise large of the ear unit stationed at otherwise large of the large of the ear unit stationed at otherwise large of the unit. From 50 to 60 stagle-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetworks were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field, and in the post of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for boeberies. Subsequently, seet of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were planeded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Adv explanements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. "Aight aircraft revetments were under construction in the scuthern portion of the field, an outroted 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the Adv. soldiers had disappeared. The Adv. soldiers lived in underground bunkers.4 4. December Licutement Colonel Endorynk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Licutemant Valuabov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	PAGES	2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	and the state of t
25X1 25X1 In early Edwenter 1952, the air unit stationed at sterial—Borstel airfield was Lieutenant Colonel Sidoryuk; Senior Lieutenant Yakushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation, sirroraft reverteents were being built around the landing field. Artilliary soldiars were also observed at the barracks installation of the field, Artilliary soldiars were also observed at the barracks installation of the field, Artilliary soldiars were also observed at the barracks installation of the field, Artilliary soldiars were also observed at the field left the installation of the field, From 50 behavior. Subsequently, soct of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were quarded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Ark emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. Dy 22 November, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. Tight aircraft revoluents were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetaent thore was a trench about 8 meters long covered by beards. Nove saircraft revetenents were under construction at the installation. The ARA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. It is proported for the first time, while information on Centur Lieutenant Yakushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of to ground attack regiment stationed at the field.
25X1 1. In early Edwander 1952, the eigenful stationed at Otental-Borstel airfield was Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Benior Lieutenant Valushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetoorts were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. I be used in the hangars of the field left the installation of the field. I be benefits. Eubsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were guarded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Air emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 Kovember, the Kussians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 Hovember, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment there was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An astirated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA, emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 4. Lowest. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Lieutenant Valushov was previously transmitted by the two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	MENIAMO		P. drá voltví delmanus tilas par j
25X1 1. In early Edwander 1952, the eigenful stationed at Otental-Borstel airfield was Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Benior Lieutenant Valushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetoorts were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. I be used in the hangars of the field left the installation of the field. I be benefits. Eubsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were guarded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Air emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 Kovember, the Kussians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 Hovember, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment there was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An astirated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA, emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 4. Lowest. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Lieutenant Valushov was previously transmitted by the two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	PROPERTY STATEMENT OF THE MEMBER FORESCOME CONTINUES.		ALANIA, ATALIA MARINEN AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AN
25X1 1. In early Edwander 1952, the eigenful stationed at Otental-Borstel airfield was Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Benior Lieutenant Valushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetoorts were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. I be used in the hangars of the field left the installation of the field. I be benefits. Eubsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were guarded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Air emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 Kovember, the Kussians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 Hovember, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment there was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An astirated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA, emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 4. Lowest. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Lieutenant Valushov was previously transmitted by the two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	artis Comité Antique Verificación que no como propunyous	25X1 DO NOT CIRCUI ATE	Made in minima desentes
1. In early Economic 1952, the commanding officer of the air unit stationed at Stendal-Borstel dirfield was Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Senior Lieutenant Yalushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revertents were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. 2. Furing the period from 10 to 18 November, about 50 of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for Boeberitz. Subsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were taken into the hangars. Signal soldiers and 30 new motor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Anh emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Botween 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment thore was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An astisted 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the Anh emplacements had disappeared. The Anh soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 1. Dormet. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Lieutenant Yalushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	nel vani i sanimana ulikosą ie nieu sameriko zi saro byroma te	ZONT THE CHICOLA	T NEW YORK HOMES: NOW, 2 HOW AND
1. In early Economic 1952, the commanding officer of the air unit stationed at Stendal-Borstel dirfield was Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Senior Lieutenant Yalushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revertents were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. 2. Furing the period from 10 to 18 November, about 50 of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for Boeberitz. Subsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were taken into the hangars. Signal soldiers and 30 new motor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Anh emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Botween 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 4. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment thore was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An astisted 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the Anh emplacements had disappeared. The Anh soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 1. Dormet. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Lieutenant Yalushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.
1. In early Economic 1952, the commanding officer of the air unit stationed at Stemial-Borstel dirfield was Lieutenant Colonel Lidoryuk; Sender Lieutenant Yakushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revertents were being built around the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. I During the period from 10 to 18 Kovember, about 50 of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for Deeberitz. Subsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were guarded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new motor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Add emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 Kovember, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 Hovember, three of the planes were given a new coat of black paint. 1. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment there was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An activated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The Mall information on Senior Lieutenant Yakushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field.
the air unit stationed at templal-Borstol mirfield was Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk; Senior Lieutenant Yakushov was the supply officer of this unit. From 50 to 60 single-engine aircraft were stationed at the installation. Aircraft revetwents were being built eround the landing field. Artillery soldiers were also observed at the barracks installation of the field. 2. Puring the period from 10 to 18 November, about 50 of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for Deeberitz. Subsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the open, were taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the open were guarded by watch dogs. Signal soldiers and 30 new notor vehicles arrived at the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous Add emplacements were observed. 25X1 3. Between 16 and 22 November, the Russians started to paint the green IL-10s black. By 22 November, three of the planes were given a now coat of black paint. 4. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment there was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An estimated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation, The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 4. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Senior Lieutenant Yakushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of to ground attack regiment stationed at the field.	25X1
h. Wight aircraft revetments were completed in front of the fuel dump. Behind each revetment there was a trench about 8 meters long covered by boards. More aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An estimated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. It	25X1	During the period from 10 to 18 November, about 50 of the planes previously housed in the hangars of the field left the installation, allegedly for Doeberitz. Subsequently, most of the aircraft previously parked in the openers taken into the hangars. Those planes which remained parked in the openers taken into the hangars. Signal soldiers and 30 new motor vehicles arrived the field. In the vicinity of the field, numerous AAA emplacements were observed.	en, en aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the field. An estimated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had disappeared. The AAA soldiers lived in underground bunkers. 1. Corment. Lieutenant Colonel Zidoryuk is reported for the first time, while information on Genior Lieutenant Yakushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field. 25X1	3.	black. By 22 november, three of the planes were given a new coat of black while information on Senior Lieutenant Yakushov was previously transmitted by The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground unit of the ground attack regiment stationed at the field. 25X1	l; o	aircraft revetments were under construction in the southern portion of the An estimated 30 such revetments were under construction at the installation. The tents previously observed near the AAA emplacements had dispressed.	ore field.
CONTRACT		The two officers are believed to be assigned to the ground	byz
COUNTRY		25X1
more constructions and a second secon		CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF

		-		25X1				25X1
	VIP ROHS		12/
				2					25X1	_
25X1	2	•					· ·
25X1	3		Joseph the spur		mel dump	is at	the wester	n ødg e o i	f the field,
25X1	· h	. availa	ble in	. Three	/AA emp diate vi	lacemen cinity	ts of 6 x of the ins	37-mm gur tallation	ns cach are

Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015900150006-8